About Dancing Shiva Yoga & Ayurveda

Dancing Shiva (DS) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is dedicated to the education, practice and lifestyle of the great Vedic sciences of Yoga and Ayurveda. DS began first began as a center in Los Angeles, California in 2001 and was founded by Mas Vidal and now has affiliations with various centers and organizations around the world. DS is focused on a unified authentic and integral approach to Yoga and Ayurveda.

DS has served as one of the original organizations in the USA to offer a complete program certification aimed at achieving the perfect balance of these great systems. DS is mainly focused on education through many unique programs, workshops and individual counseling services. DS offers its programs and services through a network of affiliated schools and organizations at different locations. Join our newsletter to receive updates on everything going on. We encourage you to join us in the global propagation of Yoga and Ayurveda.

Our programs offer curriculums based on the traditional wisdom lineages of India that blend science and spirituality for a complete approach to evolution. Our integral educational approach embraces all aspects of the vast knowledge of ayurveda, yoga and jyotish. Our diverse and highly educated faculty, are dedicated practitioners of Ayurveda and live according to the ideals of the yoga tradition.

The Dancing Shiva program line up includes:

1. 200 HOUR YOGA & AYURVEDA ONLINE PROGRAM - For those interested in becoming certified as a yoga and ayurveda counselor, students can take this program at their own pace from any computer any where in the world. This course is an excellent foundation for all the others.

2. 250 HOUR YOGA & AYURVEDA - This is Dancing Shiva's hallmark program that is now in its 15th year. It is the original certification program that unifies both sciences into one complete approach. We consider it the Mother of all programs as it provides insightful material for those in the healing arts, yoga teachers, therapist, doctors, parents and anyone interested in lifestyle enhancement.

3. 300 HOUR ADVANCED YOGA & AYURVEDA PROGRAM - These special modules are prepared for those yoga teachers looking to deepen their knowledge of Yoga and Ayurveda for spiritual and professional use. These programs teaches the concept of "Yoga Therapy" in alignment with its sister science of Ayurveda and considers therapeutic healing on a physical, mental, emotional and spiritual basis.

4. 450 HOUR AYURVEDA WELLNESS CONSULTANT PROGRAM - This is our signature ayurveda program focused on wellness and the foundation for becoming a consultant of ayurveda. This program can be combined with the India Ayurveda-Program for additional hands on and clinical training.

5. 150 HOUR INDIA AYURVEDA PROGRAM - Our annual Ayurveda program provides students the experience of learning in an authentic Indian University and is the counterpart to the Ayurveda Wellness Consultant Program. Attendees partake in daily lectures and practicums in areas of Kayachikitsa (Internal Medicine), Prasuti Tantra (Obstetrics) & Stree Roga (Gynecology), Pancha Karma (Five healing treatment modalities) and an overview of Yogchikitsa (Yoga Therapy). The program is done in association with our affiliate Indian organization International Academy Of Ayurveda (IAA) and takes place at the distinguished D.Y. Patil University.

Program Details

Ayurveda Wellness Consultant Program (AWCP) (600 Hour Certification)

This integral certification program is focused on prevention of health related issues and the promotion of ayus or longevity through a balanced and healthy life. The course seeks to improve the mind-body relationship through the wisdom of ayurveda and its themes of seasonal synchronicity (ritucharya), detoxification (pancha karma) and with a strong emphasis on psychology (manasa shastra). The program also holds to a sound foundation of therapeutics combined with spirituality as found in the traditional form of Ayurveda taught in India. The AWCP provides a well-rounded educational experience in Ayurveda's fundamental principles that embraces counseling, therapeutics and lifestyle.

Today, more and more yoga teachers are looking to expand their teaching skills beyond just postural practices and thus, this program was designed to help bridge the mind-body relationship, which is often absent from commercial yoga asana training programs.

The AWCP also provides alternative health practitioners a broader approach to healing through Ayurvedic lifestyle enhancement principles. AWCP follows an energy-based approach to health and wellness that is designed to integrate well with any methodology of healing.

Level One Education Format Includes:

- 8 months in duration totaling 450 Hours (Including one month for special assignments)
- 7 weekend (Sat & Sun) intensives – In class or live streamed. (8am – 6pm)
- Virtual classes and online lectures
- Reading material, home study and special workshops.
- Two Format Options*- In class intensive or live stream. The weekend intensives are all live streamed and recorded for viewing at your own schedule to supplement your course studies.
- Online Testing: Mid term and Final examination.
- India 150 Hour Intensive Option (See India Program listed above)

Level Two Prerequisites & Requirements for completion

- Students should have a High School diploma or equivalent and Dancing Shiva also recommends basic Anatomy and Physiology however it is not required for enrollment.
- We also recommend having completed some basic yoga certifications or even the Dancing Shiva 200 hour Yoga and Ayurveda online program, although this is not required to register for this program.
- *Students are required to attend a minimum of 70% of live classes and should only resort to live streaming or pre-recorded classes as a compliment to their studies when actual participation in class may not be possible.

Range of Practice

Upon completion students will be able to counsel clients towards a life of health and wellness.

Ayurvedic Consultants will:

- Determine a persons constitution and imbalances
- Learn to acquire notes and intake a persons history

PART TWO

Ayurveda Wellness Consultant Program

Outside Class Instruction _____ Total 330 Hours

Client Case Study Sessions – 75 Hours

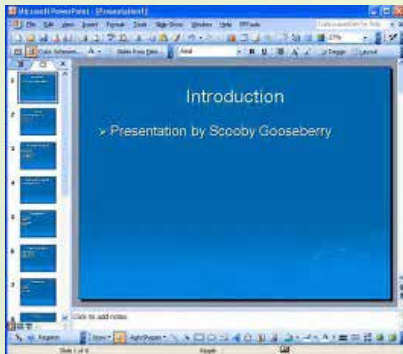

In these intimate sessions we will review actual client case studies to provide you with an opportunity to understand how the principles and practices of Ayurveda are being integrated into actual real life cases. As the faculty members review the case files; students can reference certain topics and principles in their book and notes to support understanding how theoretical teachings are made practical. Various approach and insights are given to students during these sessions to aid in strengthening the promotion of health and wellness. These sessions will be offered in live online meeting and for viewing in our video library.

Weekly Video Conference Classes – 50 Hours

Students are required to participate in these live-streamed classes or there will also be the option to view these from archives in the classroom library. Classes will take each week and schedule is subject to change as per holidays and other factors. Students are required to attend a minimum of 20 weekly conference classes, which last approximately 2.5 hours each.

Ayurvedic Self Care Regimens – 75 Hours

Students will be asked to document their daily (dinacharya) and seasonal (ritucharya) routines. This includes practices given during the live classes and other wellness practices mentioned by our faculty. Additionally, group self care meetings (live & online) will be created two times per month for approximately 2 hours to practice, discuss and explore the various methods of Ayurvedic wellness. The emphasis is on promoting self-care specific to your constitution and as per the season.

Special Presentation – 30 Hours

Students are required to prepare a special presentation to be presented to fellow classmates or friends, family and to the public. This requires choosing a topic to speak on which should be submitted to the program director or coordinator for approval and comments. This is to be completed after the last weekend intensive according to your schedule.

Basic structure to include:

- PowerPoint
- Minimum of 20 slides
- Should include images, descriptions and charts and references (bibliography)
- Presentation should be a minimum of hour in duration
- The file should be submitted to the program director or coordinator after the public presentation has been completed.

Online Classes - 50 Hours

These monthly sessions include expanded support on the topics covered in the weekend intensives. Through video conferencing the faculty will cover a vast array of material to supplement the core topics listed in the main curriculum.

Patient Encounters – 50 Hours

Three Forms of Encounters

- Patient encounters are consultations that provide students the experience of ayurvedic counseling with direct, hands on contact with patients. This includes observing the teacher (clinician) working with the patient to provide a multitude of learning experiences.
- Students will also work with patients either one on one or in small groups of two or three with direct supervision and input from the teacher.

- Complete private intakes will also be done between the students and patients to build the students confidence and explore greater rapport with the patient.

Patient sessions will be completed during the live weekend meetings, during the supervised weekend internship and during the India intensive, for those that choose to attend. Students will be required to arrange 5 private patient sessions with three encounters for each patient. Another 5 patient sessions (three encounters for each patient) will be done with teacher supervision during the live weekend classes and during the weekend intensive.

The remaining 20 hospital encounters will be experienced during the India university program.

Clinical Internship (Encounters)

This weekend takes place as a separate weekend after the main curriculum classes have been completed and will specifically focus on meeting with patients (clients) in small groups or one on one sessions with supervision from the teacher. This will also include meeting with clients from the public and hearing different discussions about each client. Each session requires performing a comprehensive intake, note taking, creating a summary of facts and information, determine a persons constitution and imbalances, create a diet plan, lifestyle plan, yoga program and then present materials for review by the program director and board members. Time spent with each patient includes the initial session, re-editing notes taken during the initial session, researching and categorizing the findings, follow up to give the client plan for implementation and then a third follow up to assess the improvements etc... This provides the initial foundation for developing a counseling practice.

PART THREE

India Study at D.Y. Patil University

Motherland Studies - 150 Hours

This 15-day intensive takes place at the esteemed D.Y. Patil University in Pune, India. For several years the Dancing Shiva School has established a close affiliation with this fully accredited Indian university. Dancing Shiva students will experience a unique opportunity of participating in specialized classes given by Mas Vidal and the faculty of the university. The material covered in the classes includes expansive (more advanced & in depth) coverage of the material listed in the main curriculum. The main difference gained from participation of studies in India is substantial. Firstly, to study at an Indian Ayurvedic university is unique to our affiliation with D.Y.

Patil, as this is not a commonly permitted at Indian academies. As international students you receive the direct cultural experience, classes given by an Indian faculty, experience of observing actual patient cases (encounters) in an ayurvedic hospital and access to an extensive library and dedicated departments for each main topic of Ayurvedic education.

DSA 113: Integrative Clinical Orientation_____ one day/10 hours

The program begins with an orientation and tour to observe how education takes place at an Ayurvedic university, with students acquiring in depth knowledge of the main branches (departments) of the school to gain greater insights of the integral process of Ayurveda.

DSA 114: Preventative Medicine (Svastha Vritta)_____two days/20 hours

~ Combines lectures, practicals and patient encounters

This section covers more advanced perspective on ayurvedic preventative health care as seen from the lens of Indian clinicians to provide cultural perspectives of how adaptation of ayurvedic principles and practices can vary between different cultures, constitutions and gender.

DSA 115: Disease Pathology and Management_____ two days/20 hours

(Roga Nidan & Kaya Chikitsa) ~ Combines lectures, practicum and patient encounters Dancing Shiva Yoga

DSA 116: Detoxification and Purification_____ two days/20 hours

(Pancha Karma) ~ Combines lectures, practicum and patient encounters

DSA 117: Ayurvedic Nutrition & Cooking_____ two days/20 hours

(Ahara Vigyan) ~ Combines lectures, practicum and patient encounters

DSA 118: Herbology_____ two days/20 hours

(Dravya Guna Shastra) ~ Combines lectures, practicum and patient encounters

DSA 119: Integrative Clinical Conclusion_____one day/10 hours

On this final day an overview of the main themes of the program are covered including the opportunity to answer any questions. On this final day we will provide a special Q & A round table discussion to review essential counseling skills, pacification therapies, brimhana (tonification) therapies, rasayanas for longevity and general childrens health and family wellness.

Out of Class Assignments – 30 Hours

The Pune region in the state of Maharasta is rich in Ayurvedic culture with a multitude of clinics, hospitals and university's. Arrangements will be made to visit specific places to enhance your educational experience.

- Reading – Handouts will be given during each section to support the lecture topics. This material should be reviewed and read after classes and for supplementation of your studies once you return home.
- Testing – A cumulative take home exam is given to validate the efficacy of your ayurvedic studies. This includes multiple choice, short answer and true-false choices.
- Graduation and Certification – A formal event is organized at the university, which brings together the entire program faculty to honor your merits as an Ayurvedic Wellness Consultant.

Accredited Affiliations

Once you have completed the requirements for the program you will receive a certificate of completion for 300 hours. There is no requirement to affiliate with any Ayurvedic associations and there are no limitations to applying these skills in your work or for personal enhancement. However, for those interested in having their studies recognized as per the standards acknowledged by these organizations can do so. The two main Ayurvedic based associations are the National Ayurvedic Medical Association (NAMA) and the other is Association of Ayurvedic Professionals of North America (AAPNA). We recommend the former since we have been aligned with them from the beginning and they seem to be leading the Ayurvedic movement towards licensure in the USA. Each of these associations provides their own criteria and standards measured by the number of hours of study. All students that complete this program will become eligible to earn credit according to requirements approved by NAMA. Professional Ayurvedic Continuing Education (PACE) credits are required for NAMA members. To apply for credit you will have to register with NAMA, upload your certificate on the NAMA website and then your completion will be reviewed and your PACE credits will be posted to the Professional Development section of your Member Profile. Additionally, the Dancing Shiva AWCP hours can also be applied as continuing education credits with the Yoga Alliance (YA). Continuing Education credits with Yoga Alliance would fall under the “yoga philosophy” category, which requires a base minimum of 30 hours over a three-year period. You might find some of the below FAQ’s helpful.

FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Is Ayurveda a legal or licensed medical system in the USA?

Recently, a bill was passed in ten states stating that residents of those states can approach non-licensed healing practitioners or counselors with informed consent. These states are (Rhode Island, Oklahoma, California, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Louisiana, Minnesota, Nevada, New Mexico). Currently, Ayurveda is not a licensed medical system in the USA.

2. Is Ayurveda regulated in any manner by each State or local governments?

No, it is not. Ayurveda is not at all regulated or licensed in the USA at any level, state or federal. There are basic competency standards set by private schools that have received state approval. In this regard practitioners are advised how to legally practice within a certain scope of practice that has limitations.

Certain aspects of ayurvedic clinical practice may fall into the scope of professions like Traditional Chinese Medicine or Massage therapy. It is advised that Dancing Shiva students of Ayurveda not casually cross over into a profession that is regulated. This will vary on a state by state or city by city basis and you might consider exploring such details for the area which you live.

3. What is the total cost of the program?

The current total tuition for Dancing Shiva Ayurveda program is $3,575. This does not include the registration fee.

4. Are there any educational requirements to take this Ayurveda program?

Not really much because we feel that anyone can benefit from taking such a course. However, we do ask that registrants have at least attained a High School diploma and we also suggest some basic study either personally or through local college in Anatomy and Physiology.

5. Does Dancing Shiva offer complimentary courses or programs that would support this Ayurveda program?

Yes. Specifically, the India Ayurveda Intensive is a great compliment to this course as it takes you into the heart of an authentic Indian University where you can experience and learn how Ayurveda is taught in its native country. It also provides the clinical experience and in depth instruction required to complete the AWCP.

6. What can I do with the certification from this program when I am completed?

You have many options especially if you are already a yoga teacher or in the healing field. This wisdom can also be integrated into your current career regardless of what you do? Many of our students offer counseling sessions at health and fitness centers, at schools, spa, resorts and many others. The hours completed in this course will allow you to register with NAMA at the Ayurvedic Health Counselor level and provides the foundation to becoming an ayurvedic practitioner. Consultants are considered to be at the first level of registration as recognized in the field of ayurveda by two of the main associations in the USA (NAMA & AAPNA). Each has their own structures for giving credit for certification courses such as this one.

7. Can I combine my hours from this certification course with those from a yoga certification course?

Yes. On an educational level its very effective and many people today take multiple certification courses to compliment their teaching and healing work. With regards to registering hours from an ayurveda course with a yoga association like Yoga Alliance it's highly unlikely unless they are for CEU's, which you can do. Yoga and Ayurveda are separate teachings according to most all organizations and each organization presents distinct criteria on how they view the efficacy of the practice. We are beginning to see some crossover with certain organizations like NAMA, which is accepting hours towards a Yoga-Ayurveda Therapist as a new category. Which association you align with does not really matter much at all with regards to your ability to practice. These associations simply provide a body that is endorsing efficacy of practice and support of professional standards.

8. Does this Ayurveda program require testing? I have never felt comfortable taking tests and this might discourage me from registering as I often feel much pressure when I have to study or prepare for an exam.

Yes, currently the program requires you take a mid-term and a final exam. These exams are take-home and open book. We want you to learn this information and enjoy the process of researching, reading and reviewing your notes so that can integrate these teachings into your life. What we have learned is that the most successful student is the one who lives the principles of ayurveda. In this manner they become the best teachers, counselors and healers because they have experienced it on them selves.

9. Is attendance mandatory? How important is it that I attend all the meetings? I have some things on my calendar later in the year that may conflict but at same time I do want to complete the course and get my certification.

Attendance to all meetings is required however you will be able to view any live classes that you have missed online and this would suffice as a make up. What you put into this course is what you will get back from it. The power of community is often irreplaceable and absorbing such ancient wisdom may not be as enjoyable.

10. Do you offer counseling services so I can make a decision on which of your programs is best suitable for me? I'm really interested in Ayurveda but I feel that the topic is very deep or advanced for me to learn right now.

The director of Dancing Shiva (Mas Vidal) has specialized in Vedic counseling for many years and has provided sessions for most of the students registered in these courses. If its just a few simple questions he often makes himself available to everyone. However, for a complete integral analysis a session must be booked for a complete review of your astrology and educational and health history. In cases where a new student has no experience or education in the vedic sciences we often recommend taking the 200 hour online yoga and ayurveda program as this provides an excellent foundation for any course and especially for someone wanting to take the Ayurveda Wellness-Consultant program. Again, taking another course is not required it may be something we will recommend if you are wanting to move forward into a field of health and healing.

Namaste!
